What makes a baby? By Cory Silverberg

Geared to readers from preschool to age eight, this book is a 21st century children's picture book about conception, gestation and birth, which is inclusive of all kinds of kids, adults, and families - regardless of how many people were involved, their orientation, gender and other identity, or family composition.

Just as important, the story doesn't gender people or body parts, so people can apply their own family experience to the text.
